THE CHRISTIANS ARE HERE

The past few weeks have been busy and trying weeks, but God has supplied every need for us through this pandemic and the hardships it has brought. Something happened during these past few weeks. Our friend Mr. Carl (pictured above) lost his wife to a heart attack. Unfortunately, she did not serve the Lord like her husband. Mr. Carl's family is Buddhist, but we are able to talk and minister to them when we are able to. After the passing of his wife, we went to visit him at his home. He was by himself while his daughters were at the Buddhist temple preparing for the burning and funeral of their mother. While we were at Mr. Carl's home he took a pause and called his daughters on the phone. He said, "Ellie, I want you and your sister to come home right now because the Christians are here." He said "the Christians are here." He wanted us to talk about Christ with him and the girls. We were able to share the love of God and try to bring comfort to their family during this time. We prayed with them and asked Holy Spirit to comfort them. We told them we would be there if they needed anything. Those words still ring in my ears, "The Christians Are Here." How many time have you heard that in your life? Though we are sad at the passing of Mr. Carl's wife, we are thankful for an opportunity to share the love of God to others. We are thankful for the humbling experience of hearing "The Christians Are Here." We need to live a life that points to Christ. Jesus says in John 13:35, "By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another." We need to live a life that bears good fruit and shows that love of Christ. We need to repent and come back to what being a Christian is all about. We need to live a life that, when people see us, they say, "The Christians are here."
