RAISING UP THE NEXT GENERATION

In a world that says sin is okay and says you can have anything you desire, we need to have a holy nation and royal priesthood to say 'Give me Jesus.' Growing up in a society that is not Christian and does not share Christian values is a hard thing to do. That is one reason God says in His Word in Hebrews 10:25, "Let us not forsake the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but let us exhort one another, especially as you see the Day approaching." Motivation. Sometimes we need motivation.

I exercise but my body doesn't like to exercise. I do it because I am motivated to stay healthy. Paul says in 1 Corinthians 9:27, "But I bring and keep my body under subjection, lest when preaching to others I myself should be disqualified." As Christians we need to have motivation, determination, and discipline. These are things that we teach our children. We want them to be prepared for the life ahead of them. But we also want them to be prepared for eternity. In these pictures, one of our house parents, Benjamin, is teaching them songs of praise. Praise changes the atmosphere. If we want to change a nation we must raise up a generation to know how to change the atmosphere around them. The atmosphere may speak about Buddhism and Spiritism but we teach our children to speak love and praise Jesus to change the atmosphere around them. Jesus had disciples who made disciples who then made disciples. It was a disciple cycle. We desire to equip and pour into their lives. You are helping us make a difference. You are helping us to rescue, restore, equip and release these children into the 'Promised Land' God has for them. Thank you so much for your support and we pray for you daily. We hope you will come visit us when airports and flights open back up. God bless.
