HELPING CHILDREN LEARN

Yipsee, Maggie, Fah

Education is a challenging thing for many in Thailand. The cost of going to school can be daunting for many Thai families. It is said that Thai children receive a free education to grade 9 but that is not the case in many areas of Thailand. A recent article in the Chiang Rai Times stated, "Thailand's scores have plunged to an overall ranking of 54 out of 70 assessed countries. PISA has found that one-third of Thailand's 15-year-olds were 'functionally illiterate.'"

One principal was quoted saying, "many children do not come to school because they cannot afford the 20 baht (61 cents US) lunch and were embarrassed when they had to sit down at lunch and watch their friends eat." Your financial support is helping us provide food and a proper education for our girls. They have been taken out of situations that seemed to give no hope for their future and have been given the opportunity to learn and have a brighter tomorrow. Our girls are excelling in academics. Flooding in Chiang Mai

Roads and Homes were flooded here recently in many communities in Chiang Mai. The heavy rains came and the waters rose quickly. We experienced rising water near our place of worship and Pastor Pong's home but we were all kept safe. I am including some pictures of some of the flooding we experienced. Please pray for us as we clean up and carry on with our work here.

When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; And through the rivers, they shall not overflow you.

When you walk through the fire, you shall not be burned, Nor shall the flame scorch you.

Isaiah 43:2 NKJV

school teachers and we were told that the girls are very smart and at the top of their class. They are learning the normal subjects that are taught in any school, math, science, and reading but they are also being taught English to open doors for further education or better jobs upon graduating.

We teach the girls about Jesus. We teach the girls about His love. We tell them about you and how that you are His hands and feet embodying the words of Jesus, "when you have done it unto the least of these you have done it unto me." Thank you for being a blessing to us. We love you!
